

Krisztina Szabó, Senior Voice

Hungarian-Canadian mezzo-soprano Krisztina Szabó is highly sought after in both North America and Europe as an artist of supreme musicianship and stagecraft, and has become known for her promotion and performance of contemporary Canadian works. Opera Canada declared her to be an “exceptional talent” and Schmopera Opera Blog wrote that “her instrument is one-of-a-kind and she has cemented herself as a darling of Canadian experimental music and opera...her sensibility and sensitivity to the material is truly inspiring”. In her hometown of Toronto, Canada, she has been nominated twice for a Dora Award for Outstanding Female Performance. Krisztina Szabó was a member of Voice Faculty at the University of Toronto for 6 years and was recently appointed

Assistant Professor of Voice and Opera at the University of British Columbia School of Music.
