

Mike Tremblay, Woodwinds

Mike Tremblay is a Canadian saxophonist and woodwind specialist with more than 35 years experience. He is an Associate Performance Faculty member and Contract Instructor at Carleton University where he teaches saxophone, jazz improvisation, ensembles, and is the co-founder and Director of their annual Jazz Camp. He frequently performs with many ensembles including the National Arts Centre

Orchestra, Ottawa Jazz Orchestra and several theatre companies. Mike's latest recording "Apple Face" was recorded with co-leader Mark Ferguson and Canadian jazz icons Dave Young and Terry Clark. Mike is well known for his masterclasses, and he adjudicates for Musicfest (regionals and nationals), and the Kiwanis Music Festival.