

DR. TONY NAM-HAI LEONG, Ph.D.,
Senior Strings and String Ensembles

Dr. Tony Nam-Hai Leong completed his PhD at the University of Toronto in addition to a Master's degree in Computer Applications. Dr. Leong's research areas include string education, technology, adolescents and community music. His publications include the Canadian and Ontario Music Educators' Association Journals, as well as presentations of his research both at the international and provincial levels.

Dr. Leong has guest lectured courses at the undergraduate and graduate levels at the University of Toronto, York University, and the University of Western Ontario, as well as having given presentations across Canada and the USA on the topics of string education and technology in the music classroom. He is currently a Conn-Selmer Educational Clinician; MusicFest Canada's Chairman of the Orchestra/Strings Division; Past-President of the Ontario Music Educators' Association's board of directors; Treasurer for the Canadian Music Educators' Association; co-founding member of the Ontario Strings Association; conductor and lecturer with the University of Toronto Scarborough String Orchestra; an instructor at Queen's University; Head of the Performing Arts Program at Sir Oliver Mowat C.I.; and has been a past member on the Board of Directors of the Coalition for Music Education in Canada.